17th Anniversary Week. 1898-1915A Wonderful Anniversary DayThe store has been overflowing with people since the opening at 9 o'clock, and we take a moment now—11:30—to thank you all for your good wishes.OUR IDEA IN PLANNING THIS EVENT always is to provide the merchandise you want most at this time at prices that save you from 24 to 1/2, as an Anniversary celebration.AND TO HAVE SO MANY PEOPLE SAY: "I found such a pretty dress"—or coat—or suit—or "I bought enough gloves, or stockings or neckwear, for six months, because the prices are so low"—and to have them thank us so cordially makes us all feel that the hard work of preparation was well worth while.OUR ANNIVERSARY CONTINUES ALL THE WEEK—Not all the items have been advertised or can be advertised. We mention some of the principal features, but wish to emphasize that every corner of the store is interesting in an Anniversary way.$35.00 and $40.00 Cloth Suits, $26.50 honors. The funeral party arrived at the Union station about 1 o'clock and proceeded at once to the cemetery, being met at the entrance of the military reservation by a column consisting of a squadron of cavalry and a platoon of field artillery and escorted to the grave, where the burial was made with the usual military ceremonies.Gen. Shaler was from Pennsylvania and served as a sergeant in the 12th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry from April, 1861, until the following August.

Later in the civil war he was appointed to the United States Military Academy and was graduated in 1867. After a few months of service in the artillery arm he was transferred to the ordinance department and served therein until January, 1905, when he was re-
